

Irene Krastev Award

International Women's Day
Association SA Inc

An award for community spirit and work

Qualities that the International Women's Day Association seeks to recognise, value and commend through this award include:

- Community involvement with women in South Australia
- Achievements in community work with women
- Leadership in women's groups
- Volunteer work with women
- Individuals and women's groups
– mentoring individuals and providing support to individual women and women's groups

The Migrant Women's Lobby Group and Irene Krastev

The Migrant Women's Lobby Group was one of the groups Irene helped found, and the group remained a focus for her community activities. Irene was an Executive member of the MWLG since its inception in 1984.

The MWLG decided to honour, recognise and remember Irene and her contribution to the community and women's issues, by having the IWD Irene Krastev Award.

The MWLG would like to present the award to a woman from a migrant or refugee background, who has made a significant contribution to the community and to the participation of women in the social, economic and educational life of South Australia.
